STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA Regular Session of the County Court of Kanawha County, West Virginia, held at the Courthouse thereof OCT - 1 1965
County of West Virginia. The foregoing appraiser's report was this day presented to the Court and the same having been inspected and approved by the Commissioner of Accounts, to whom said estate was referred, it was thereupon in all respects confirmed and ordered to be recorded and of FILED 1965, the foregoing appraisal of deceased, was presented in the office aforesaid and upon motion admitted to record.

Teste: Paul E. Wehrle Clerk

By Kanawha County Court Deputy

The appraisers should inquire of the executor or administrator and of members of the family whether there is any joint bank account, jointly held stocks, bonds, notes or other personal or real property held jointly by the decedent and any other person, with right of survivorship, and if the decedent made any gift or conveyance without adequate money consideration and whether he purchased any annuity payable to himself or any other person, and list every item in Item No. 7, giving the names of all parties involved, and the value of such items at the death of the decedent. The foregoing items are not part of the decedent's estate but they are required by law to be appraised.

Do not forward to State Tax Commissioner until Clerk has attested to recordation.
